Looking Ahead

Optional Music Contest for solos or small ensembles on Saturday, March 2 at Evangel

- Federated Music Contest is a great opportunity for those music students that want to push themselves to the next level and to get feedback from another music judge. This is completely optional but does take time to prepare and memorize the music. All music students have to pick appropriate music-one from a list and one not on the list and be entered by Saturday, January 20, as well as pay the $20 entry fee. There is also a theory event that costs $10 to enter. All of the PSHP students would do great at these written theory exams, with all of their experience on Fridays!

- Dan Updegrave and I will be happy to meet with interested students on Friday, December 8 from 11:30-2:00 at Asbury. Please email us directly to set up a time and also that we can bring music for the students. Vocal students and ensembles are also welcome to enter. Talk to Kathy Love if you have any questions.

  - No classes or events will be scheduled for December 22nd or 29th.
  - PSHP classes resume on Friday, January 5, 2024!!

JOYS and CONCERNS Lord hear our prayers.

- Prayers for Isabelle Suh who is having to wear a heart monitor for 2 weeks due to some concerns.
- John Mitchell, Tori’s Dad, had heart surgery Tuesday, November 14 at Barnes in St. Louis to replace a valve and repair on aneurism. Prayers for John as he recovers. He was dismissed the day after Thanksgiving to return to Springfield. A MealTrain link to sign up to help the family as he is recovering is posted on our private PSHP Families FaceBook post. See Hannah Hood or Kathy Love if you need help.
- Eric Pichler, dad to former PSHP students and Shelly’s husband, was diagnosed with lymphoma. Good news that it was caught early and will be treated with oral medications and monitored.
- The Marling’s family friend, Mr. Poteat, who is in his 40’s in Arkansas and now on hospice care for cancer. He and his wife have 2 children at home.
